DEDICATION

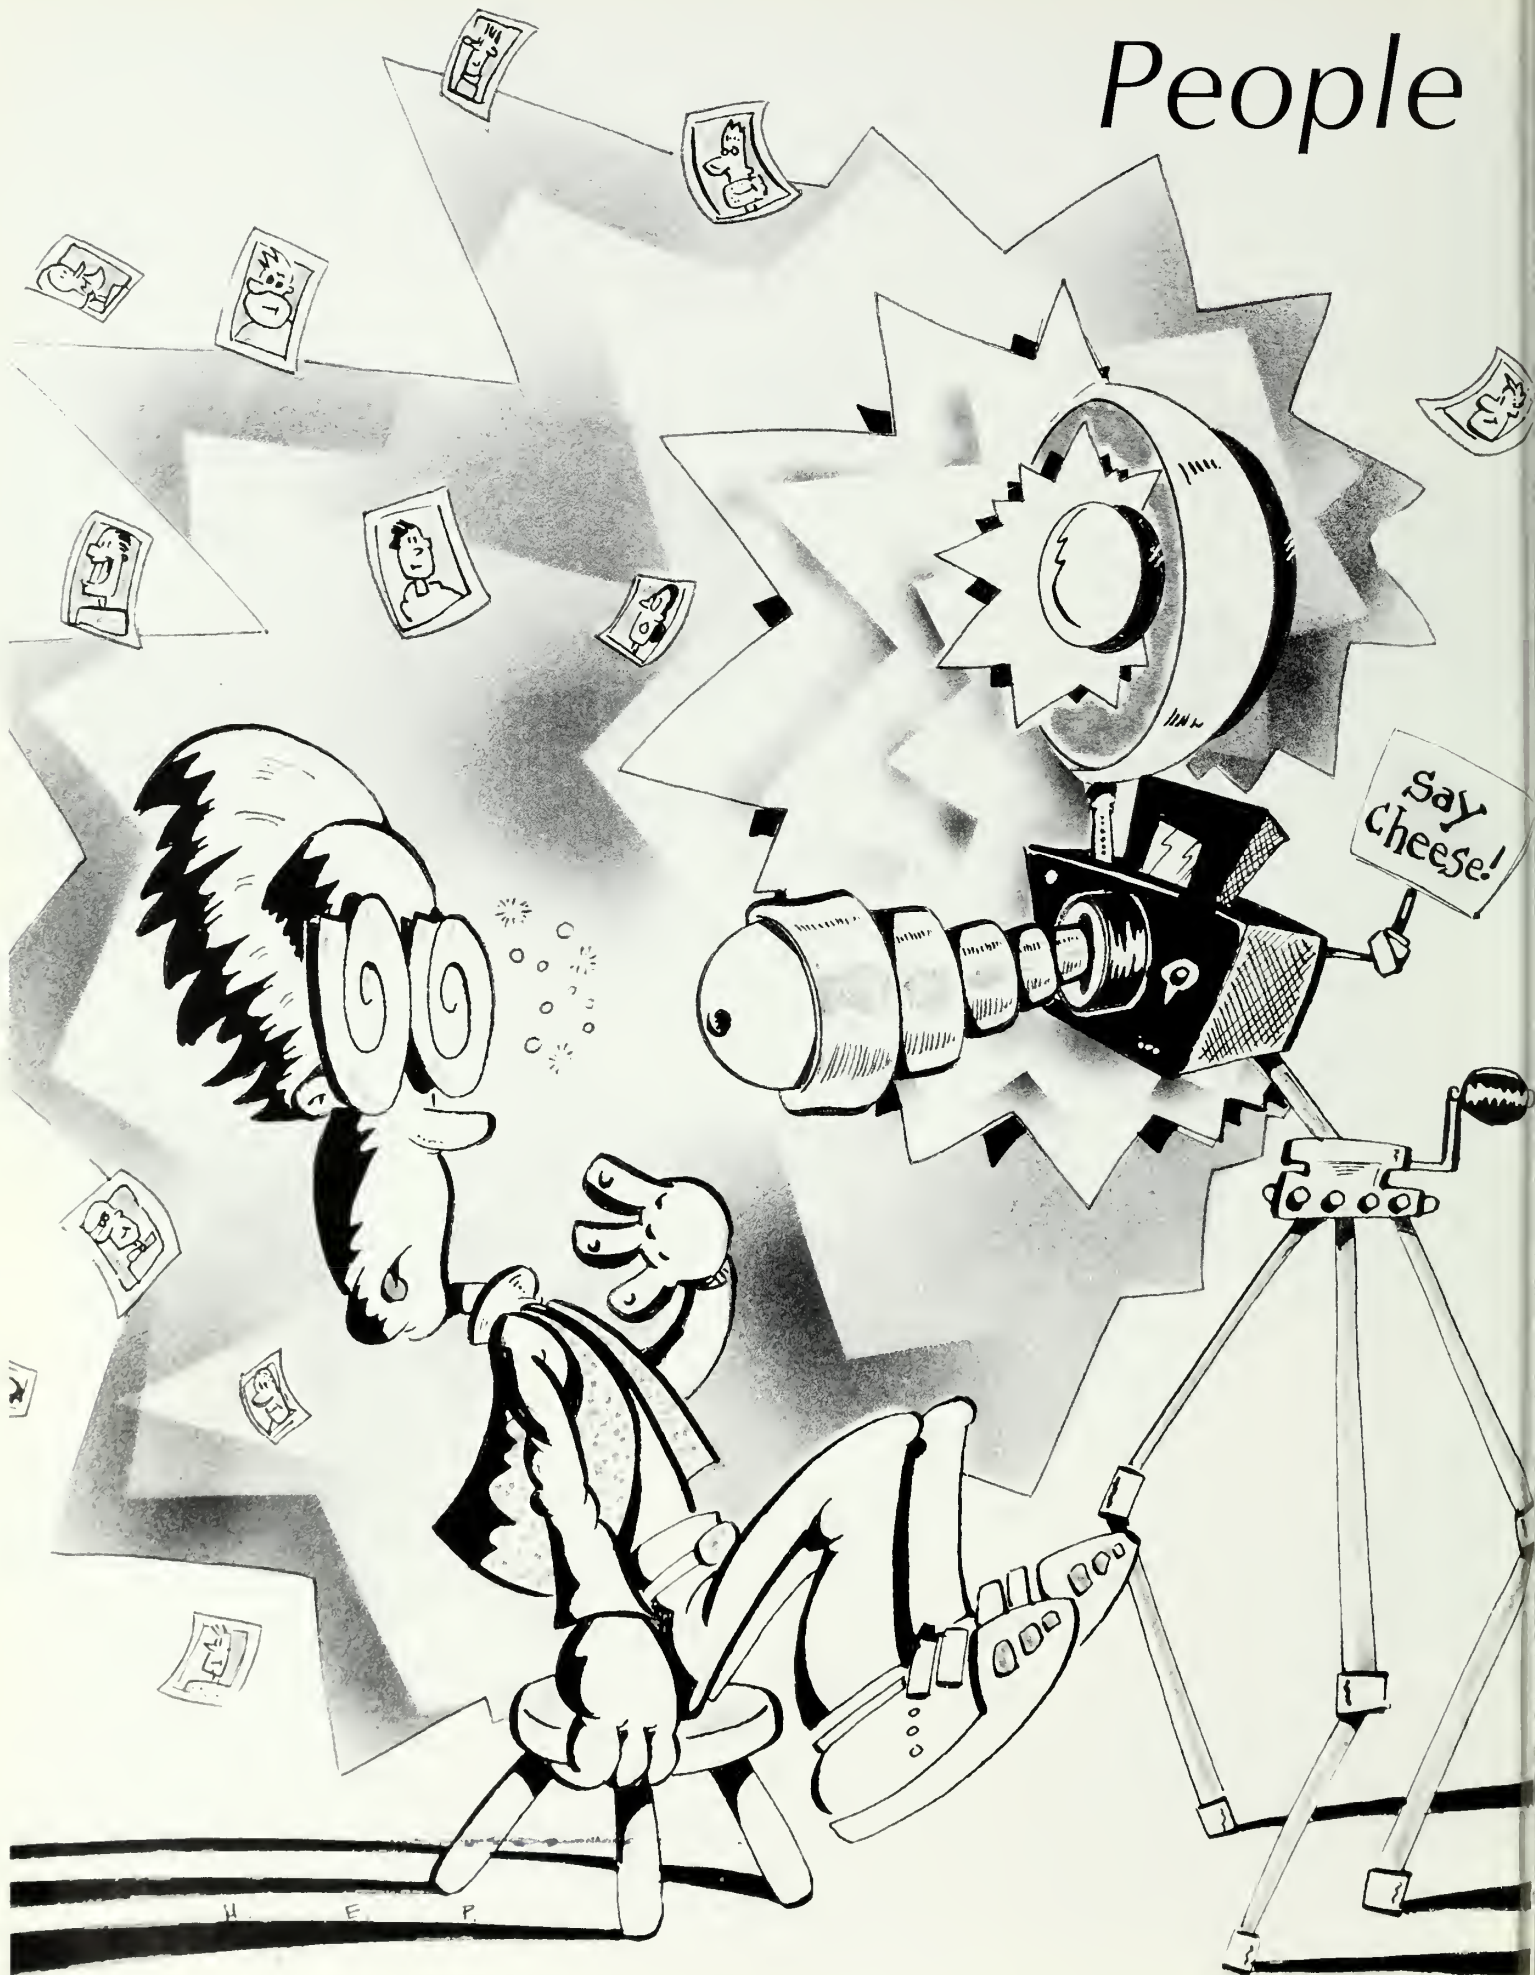

As an advisor to the class of 1998, Mrs. Lambert unselfishly gave her time to help us carry out our many projects and goals. She has always shown wisdom, patience, and generosity. Through our four years she has been a friend. Therefore, in recognition of her many hours spent with us, we dedicate our yearbook to
Mrs. Elizabeth Lambert

Vince Lombardi once said, "I firmly believe that any man's finest hour is that moment when he has his heart out in a good cause and lies exhausted on the field of battle victorious." These two men, Mr. Geoffrey Schoos (left) and Mr. John Tite (right), have fought the greatest battle to educate us, and so we thank them. We wish them the best of luck in the many years to come.

Time Crunch Creates "Deadline" Anxiety, Fatigue, Frustration It's About Time

Mr. Grande advises

Each year Grafton High School selects 10 students to participate in the Humanities Scholars Program. Annually, the program, which includes 7 area high schools, addresses a central humanities theme. This year it is The First Amendment.

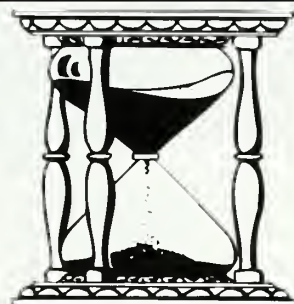

Humanities

Students meet 4 times a year at area colleges to listen to lectures by college professors and to discuss in groups related topics of interest.

Scholars Program

Prior to each trip, students read articles and primary documents to prepare for the lectures. The program culminates with an evening of student presentations based on their research.

The Way You Look Tonight

On April 30, 1998, the Grafton High Auditorium was the setting for the annual Personal and Family Living weddings. Much planning and effort resulted in two wedding ceremonies that were as close to the real thing as possible. Personal and Family Living is a course in which students learn about themselves and their peers as they prepare for life after high school.

The weddings, which stress the significance of the commitment being made in marriage, are a highlight of the P & F course. Students in both classes make personal commitments to organize every aspect of the weddings, from recording music to creating decorations. Students also write the vows and play the key roles.

Much of the student body attended the first wedding, which featured Bride Ellen Howard and Groom Brandon Guild.

Graduation Friday June 5, 1998

At 6:00 p.m. on a cool Friday evening parents, teachers, family, and friends filled the Grafton High gymnasium to see the class of 1998 graduate.

We were welcomed by class president Matt Lobo, who presented the class gift, a shelter in the oval in front of the school for those waiting for rides. The structure was built by GHS students.

Honor speaker Melissa Dujnic told us that "This Has Been a Test." Salutatorian Jennifer Blum asked "Why Us?" as she recounted tribulations suffered by her class, including the school renovation. Finally, Valedictorian Kathleen Hubbard spoke about "Success." Jason Maloney and Andrew Patrick sang an original song, accompanying themselves on guitars.

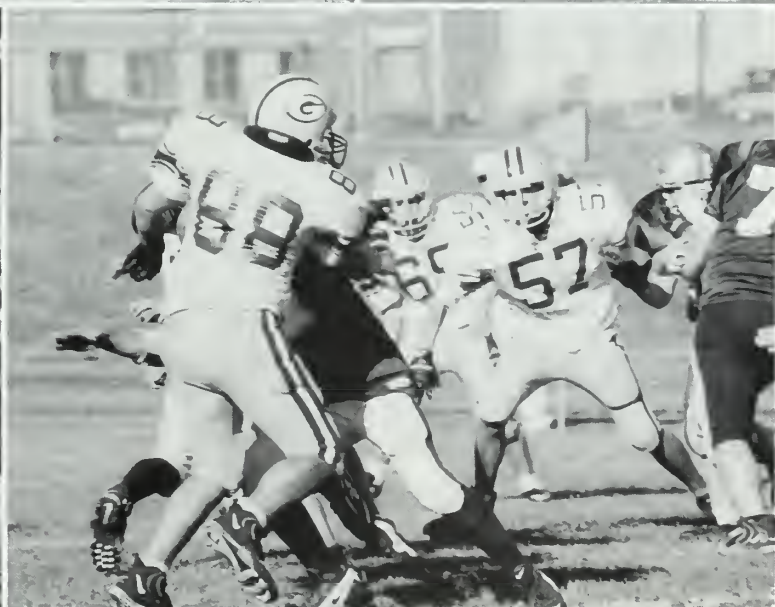

Joyce Trapasso sang "Land-slide," which left many seniors in tears as they remembered their many happy years together.

During Class Day on June 4 many seniors received scholarships and awards, as well as certificates of participation.

Congratulations to the 93 seniors who graduated.

Ice Hockey hits tough competition

At first glance, the 1997-98 varsity hockey team's record of 6-13 indicates a disappointing season. However, with a second glance, one can conclude that the odds of a fourth consecutive playoff appearance were against them. Fighting through many adversities, such as the loss of six seniors, an extremely difficult schedule against many perennial powerhouses, and multiple injuries and illnesses, this year's team still had many highlights including a 4-1 triumph over Nashoba, a team they had not beaten in five years.

Senior co-captain and Roy Conference All-Star Brian Kaufman led the team in scoring with 30 points. Joining him on the first line were senior co-captain Mike Scott (22 points) and an emerging star, sophomore Steve Pizzimenti (25 points). On the blue line, senior Tim Orrell, junior Brian Page and sophomore Adam Esten helped to prevent many scoring chances for opponents, while senior goalkeeper Ben Gauthier single-handedly kept the squad in most games with his aggressive style and quick glove hand.

Players take their spots on the blue line for the playing of our national anthem.

As the sun sinks slowly over the horizon . . .

we bid a fond farewell to the Class of 1998

"Where Do We Go?"

Music: Jay Maloney and Andy Patrick

Lyrics: Andy Patrick

To the Grafton Memorial Senior High School's Class of 1998

Where do we go?
Now that everything is said and done.
Now we have to make it on our own.
And with you, it's been so much fun.
Everyone is happy here and we all get along.
Looking back to where we started,
This seemed so far away.

We have our dreams,
Yeah, we made it, and now we'll go our separate ways.
We're all getting older, we've turned our lives around.
So it's time to see the world and lift our feet up off the ground.

It's hard to say good-bye sometimes.
I know it is for all
And now it's time to say our last good-byes
But at least we're all together standing proud and tall.
Where do we go?
We've come so far
Now we must change our ways.
Where do we go?

Everything we've lived for must now be pushed behind.
I wish you all the best of luck
And I hope we'll still be friends
And I know that you'll keep going strong
Until we meet again.
